

GROUP FOR THE STUDY OF IRISH HISTORIC SETTLEMENT.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1987

1st-3rd MAY, GLENSIDE HOTEL, DROGHEDA.

Friday, 1st May

8.30 p.m. Introduction: "Drogheda and its historic settlement."
Mrs. M. Corcoran (Old Drogheda Society).

Saturday, 2nd May

9.30 a.m. "The archaeology of Drogheda."

Mr. Ciaran Campbell (archaeologist of Drogheda excavations).

10.30 a.m. Coffee.

11.00 a.m. "Typology of settlement in Louth and Meath."

Dr. Kevin Whelan (National Library).

12.00 noon "Pre-historic settlement of the Boyne."

Professor George Eogan (U.C.D.).

Afternoon

After lunch Professor Eogan will lead the field excursion in the Boyne valley.

8.00 p.m. Annual Dinner.

Sunday, 3rd May.

10.00 a.m. Walking tour of old Drogheda, and visit to Museum, led by members of Old Drogheda Society.

12.00 noon Annual General Meeting.

Afternoon

The Old Drogheda Society has kindly offered to provide refreshments following the A.G.M. For those who do not need to travel home immediately a special visit to the unique Beaulieu House has been arranged.

The Glenside Hotel, at Smithstown, is 2 miles from Drogheda on (the western side of) the main Dublin to Drogheda road. Those who wish to stay at the Glenside should ring the Hotel directly at 041- 29049. Bed & Breakfast @ £17 per person sharing has been arranged for those attending the conference. A list of some other Bed & Breakfast facilities in the locality is given overleaf.