

The history of the Fermanagh basin
3-5 May 1974
Killyhevlin Hotel, Enniskillen, Co. Fermanagh
In conjunction with the Fermanagh Field Club and the Clogher Historical Society

Friday, 3 May

8.15pm Rev. Fr. P. Livingstone (Fermanagh Field Club),
'Settlements in Fermanagh before the Plantation'.

Saturday, 4 May

Morning

Mr Richard Warner (Ulster Museum), 'Aspects of the Lough
Erne area in the early historic period'

Miss Catherine Simms (Dublin Institute of Advanced Studies), 'The medieval kingdom of Lough Erne'

Afternoon

Excursion by boat to some of the islands on Lough Erne.
It was not possible to land at Deevnish Island, as planned, because of the 'low level of water'

Sunday, 5 May

Morning

Annual General Meeting

Afternoon

Tour of Enniskillen

[This programme is compiled from the reports in the Irish Times, 18 April, 7 May 1974]